

After a two-year break, Bluboats and the Sailingcenter Tegernsee are happy to organising now again the popular regatta training on Lake Garda. For four days, training sessions on the water and on land with professional sailors Christian Scherrer and Stephan Eder are on the program. In addition to sailing and theory, social and culinary activities will not be neglected. We will again be guests of Fraglia Vela Riva in Riva del Garda. The harbor and club infrastructure are only a few minutes' walk from the center. In cooperation with Fraglia Vela Riva, we will take the necessary precautions and comply with the local restrictions to minimize the risk of spreading Covid-19 during the training.

Date/Place: 24 - 27 March 2022 (Arrival 23 March 2022 / Departure 27 March 2022 after lunch), Fraglia Vela Riva, Riva del Garda, Trentino, Italia, Lake Garda

Participants: The training is open for passionate and active regatta sailors from all classes and backgrounds. It is principally aimed at those new to sailboat racing. Both teams and individuals can register. Individuals will be grouped into teams of four by the organisers.

Course: All aspects of race training (boat handling, trim, tactics etc.) short windward-leeward racing. Training will be adjusted to the needs of individual participants.

Boats: Blu26 - bring your own or rent one on site. We sail the blu26 with 4 crew.

Price: Four days of coaching by Christian Scherrer and Stephan Eder on the water and on land, including video analysis and craning and berthing:

- Team of 4 with own boat: CHF 1540 / € 1400
- Team of 4 without boat (including boat rental): CHF 2640 / € 2420
- Price for individuals per person incl. partial boat rental: CHF 660 / € 605

Accommodation and food are the responsibility of participants; however, we recommend the following offer at the Albergo Alle Porte (see details on page 2).

Registration deadline: 28th of February. Contact info@bluboats.com

Provisional program: You should arrive latest on Wednesday evening, 23 March 2022 at 19.30, when we will have a first meeting at the Fraglia Vela Riva for the first training session which will take place on Thursday morning. Teams with their own boats should arrive earlier. Boats should be launched at 16.00 on the Wednesday latest. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday sessions on the water in the morning and in the afternoon are scheduled. On Sunday morning we will have one more session and will then end the event after lunch. The training sessions are set up to fit in with the wind in the morning and the afternoon. Between these sessions there is time for a break, lunch at the club and coaching ashore. The idea that participants provide their input, and we adjust the training to their needs. Depending on the knowledge and skill level of the different teams, it's also possible to divide the fleet in two groups. From Saturday afternoon onwards we'll organise a coached regatta series.

Accommodation: We recommend bookings with our event accommodation partner YEG at Hotel Rivamia. YEG guarantees best prices and services and has made special. As an alternative the Grand Hotel Riva is also offered. Both hotels are nearby the Fraglia Vela Riva. Please see the YEG Bluboats Blu26 Regatta training accommodation document under the link below and contact Francesca or Iliara for your bookings.
